

Title: Ljubljana environmental sustainability

Generated on: 2026-04-17 16:47:53

Copyright (C) 2026 ALEXANDRA BESS. All rights reserved.

---

The top 40 destinations are recognised as global leaders in sustainability and regenerative practices, demonstrating outstanding efforts to create a positive impact on their cities, ...

It's a city that has long been recognised for its environmental conscience, where a number of measures in the field of sustainable development, including green mobility, waste management and sustainable ...

Miracle at the Heart of Europe In Ljubljana, the commitment to the sustainable development of our city was made already in 2007 because we firmly believe that this is the only way to ensure that we, and ...

In Ljubljana, we regularly monitor key sustainability indicators, covering areas such as the environment, economy, society, culture, tourism, and human rights in the destination.

The-tree ringed castle grounds, the turquoise river, the foliage-lined city walks and the stunning public parks create a fresh, clean environment you rarely experience in a capital city.

Ljubljana ranks among the most sustainable cities in Europe. In 2016 it received the prestigious title of European Green Capital. In October 2021 it became number one among the 20 Best Green Capitals ...

Ljubljana is Europe's greenest capital, with car-free streets, vast green spaces and easy access to nature. Here's why it deserves a spot on your list.

Today, Ljubljana is well-regarded as a smart green city and popular tourist destination - with a commitment to the circular economy, innovative mobility, the environment, and cultural heritage.

Website: <https://lesfablesdalexandra.fr>

