

Title: Riyadh solar air conditioner standard code

Generated on: 2026-04-10 20:49:46

Copyright (C) 2026 ALEXANDRA BESS. All rights reserved.

---

The application of the requirements and requirements of the Building Code applies to all new projects for which building permits are issued by the competent authorities starting from June 30, 2025.

This standard specifies energy performance and labelling requirements for air conditioners in Saudi Arabia. It introduces the Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) as the new rating method and ...

The standard SASO 2663/2021 sets updated energy performance standard for air conditioners, along with updated energy labelling for the sell of those appliances.

HVAC stands for heating, ventilating, and air-conditioning and is the basic and foremost requirement of any complex building. The need for an HVAC system is to ensure that air quality ...

In continuation with the move of rationalizing energy consumption in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, SASO has published a new version of the standard SASO 2663/2021 related to Minimum ...

For air conditioners powered with an electric resistance for the heating mode, cooling and heating modes shall not operate simultaneously, and the maximum power shall be declared by the ...

Shaker Group explains Saudi Arabia's new air conditioning regulations. Discover compliant LG HVAC solutions and avoid penalties. Official SASO partner.

SASO has recently introduced new requirements and enforcement timelines for a new version of the standard for air conditioners SASO 2663:2021 "Air conditioners minimum energy performance, ...

Website: <https://lesfablesdalexandra.fr>

