Are TW solar panels available in Australia?

TW Solar panels available and approved for use in Australia are listed on the Clean Energy Council's approved solar module list under the company name of "Tongwei Co Ltd". While Tongwei Solar produces a large range of solar panel models, you can expect those sold for residential use in Australia to have these characteristics:

Are TW solar solar panels reliable?

Selected TW Solar models have been recognised as Top Performers in recent Kiwa PVEL PV Module Reliability Scorecards. Treat this as a durability signal for those specific models rather than a blanket brand claim. Current TW Solar rooftop solar panels are often specified around 400 to 445 W, depending on configuration and series.

Who makes TW solar panels?

TW Solar panels are manufactured by China's Tongwei Solar. It's a huge company that produces what appear to be decent panels, priced more towards the budget end of the spectrum. Tongwei now has an office in Sydney and they're among the list of brands we recommend.

What makes TW solar unique?

TW Solar's success wasn't just a statistic; it was a testament to the changing landscape of renewable energy. What sets TW Solar apart isn't just the numbers; it's the harmony in its supply chain. From the birth of polysilicon to the assembly of modules, TW Solar orchestrates a seamless production symphony.
